'Paperless trials and in court technology'

Thursday
15 November 2018
8.30–9.30am

Neil McPhee Room
Level 1 - Owen Dixon Chambers East
205 William Street, Melbourne

In this joint initiative of the Supreme and County Courts of Victoria, Justice John Dixon, Principal Judge of the Supreme Court's Common Law Division, and Judge Philip Misso, the Judge in charge of the County Court's Common Law Division, will chair a panel of speakers to discuss the use of technology in trials.

The panel will include Judge Tsalamandris of the County Court, Judicial Registrar Clayton of the Supreme Court and Ms Julia Frederico of the Victorian Bar, all enthusiastic proponents of new technology in trials, who will speak about their experiences and the benefits of going paperless.

Who should attend?

The seminar is primarily aimed at newer members of the profession. More experienced practitioners wishing to update their knowledge are also encouraged to attend.

RSVP via Eventbrite no later than 8 November 2018. Tickets are available via: <https://bit.ly/2S53fGR>
