

Wellbeing for young practitioners: Dealing with vicarious trauma

Thursday 16 May 2019
8.30am to 9.30am
Owen Dixon Chambers East
Neil McPhee Room
Level 1, 205 William Street, Melbourne

The Supreme and County Courts of Victoria invite you to attend the latest joint seminar on practitioner wellbeing. An experienced psychologist will explain why vicarious trauma is an issue for the legal profession and a senior legal practitioner will discuss the landmark case of YZ v The Age Co Ltd [2018] VCC 148 (on appeal).

A panel of judicial officers and legal practitioners will then share their experiences and provide practical advice on how to recognise and deal with vicarious trauma.

PANEL

Chief Justice Ferguson (Chair & moderator)
Judge O'Neill, County Court
Bernadette Healy, VicBar consultant psychologist
Victoria Keays, Principal Lawyer at Gordon Legal
Arushan Pillay, VicBar
