

SUPREME COURT OF VICTORIA
TERANG / COBDEN FIRE CLASS ACTION

LENEHAN

v

POWERCOR AUSTRALIA LIMITED LTD

(S CI 2018 01290)

IMPORTANT NOTICE

[GM] NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF TERANG / COBDEN FIRE CLASS ACTION

The Supreme Court has ordered that this notice be published to inform Group Members about a proposed settlement of the class action. You should read this notice carefully as the matters set out below may affect your legal rights.

The Class Action

Mr Anthony Lenehan (plaintiff) commenced this class action on his own behalf and on behalf of all those who suffered loss as a result of the bushfire which started near the intersection of the Princes Highway and Peterborough Road, Terang, Victoria on 17 March 2018 (Terang / Cobden Fire).

Group Members

You are a Group Member in the class action if you:

- (a) suffered personal injury (physical or psychiatric); and/or
- (b) suffered loss of or damage to property; and/or
- (c) resided in the Terang / Cobden Fire area or had real or personal property in the area and suffered economic loss as a result of the Terang / Cobden Fire.

You are also a Group Member if you are the legal personal representative of the estate of any deceased person who would otherwise have qualified as a group member.

In addition to the plaintiff, 91 Group Members have registered claims with Maddens Lawyers. Those Group Members are referred to as Registered Group Members (RGMs).

Proposed Settlement

The parties have agreed to a settlement of the class action.

The settlement cannot take effect without Court approval. The plaintiff has asked the Court to approve: -

- (a) the proposed settlement;
- (b) the payment of the plaintiff's legal costs from the settlement sum; and
- (c) a scheme for the distribution of the balance of the settlement sum to RGMs (Settlement Distribution Scheme).

The Court will consider whether or not to approve the settlement, the plaintiff's legal costs and the Settlement Distribution Scheme in the week of 9 December 2019.

If the settlement is approved, only RGMs will be entitled to participate in the settlement and receive compensation. RGMs will be entitled to participate in the settlement in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Distribution Scheme. RGMs will also be bound by the settlement and will not be able to bring any other claim against the defendant for any loss suffered as a result of the Terang / Cobden Fire.

Group Members who suffered loss as a result of the Terang / Cobden Fire but who are not RGMs will not be entitled to participate in the settlement or receive compensation under the Settlement Distribution Scheme. Those Group Members will be bound by the settlement and will not be entitled to bring a separate claim against the defendant for any loss suffered as a result of the Terang / Cobden Fire.

If you are unsure whether you are a RGM (and therefore entitled to participate in any settlement that may be approved) or a Group Member, please contact Maddens Lawyers on 1800 815 228 or seek your own legal advice immediately.

What You Must Do

There are only two options which you must consider.

Option 1      If you support the settlement then you do not need to do anything.

Option 2      If you oppose the settlement and wish to object then you must complete the 'Notice of Objection to Proposed Settlement' which is Annexure A to this Notice. You must return the Notice to Maddens Lawyers or the Supreme Court Registry before 4.00pm on 28 November 2019. You may be invited to come to Court in the week of 9 December 2019 to argue your objection. You will be notified in advance of the exact date.

If you are not sure what to do, you should contact Maddens Lawyers or seek independent legal advice. You must act quickly because the deadline for objections is 4.00pm on 28 November 2019.

When your Objection will be Considered

The Court has ordered that any objections to the proposed settlement (made in accordance with Option 2 above) will be considered by the Court at the Supreme Court, Melbourne, Victoria in the week of 9 December 2019.

If there are no objections, or the objections are overruled, then the proposed settlement will be given final approval by the Court. It will then take effect. When it takes effect, RGMs will have their claims assessed in accordance with the Settlement Distribution Scheme to determine their compensation entitlements.

Addresses for questions

If you have any questions about the proposed settlement or this notice, you can contact Maddens Lawyers at any time, or seek your own independent legal advice.
