SCHEDULE

FEE CATEGORIES AND DEFINITIONS

A standard fee payer means (a) a natural person other than a natural person acting in the capacity of statutory office holder; (b) an entity which is a not-for-profit organisation that - (i) operates exclusively for charitable, civil or other social purposes; and (ii) does not share or allocate the funds or profits of the organisation with the owners, shareholders or executives of the organisation; (c) any entity that has a turnover of less than $200,000 in the financial year before the financial year in which a fee needs to be paid; (d) the executor or administrator of a deceased estate.

A concession fee payer means a person who holds a current health care card within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991 at the time a fee is payable.

A corporate fee payer means an entity other than a standard fee payer or a concession fee payer.

A small estate means, for the purpose of item 4.5, a value calculated in accordance with section 71 of the Administration and Probate Act 1958.

Note, where a fee is sought to be paid by or on behalf of two or more applicants, then - (a) if one or more of the parties making the request is a corporate fee payer, the fee applicable to a corporate fee payer is to be paid; or (b) if none of the parties making the request is a corporate fee payer and one or more of the parties making the request is a standard fee payer, the fee applicable to a standard fee payer is to be paid.

Evidence requirements:

If the party is a standard fee payer (aside from a natural person, per section (a)) or a concession fee payer, the applicant (or their authorised legal representative) will be required to complete an Application for standard or concession court fees'. A copy of this form may be obtained from the Probate Office or downloaded from www.supremecourt.vic.gov.au.

WAIVER OF FEES (section 14 of the Regulations)

A fee may be waived, if, at the time the fee is payable, the person or other entity - (a) is legally represented in the proceeding under a pro bono scheme administered by or on behalf of the Victorian Bar, the Law Institute of Victoria or Justice Connect; (b) is legally represented in the proceeding on a pro bono basis by a member of the Federation of Community Legal Centres; (c) has been granted legal aid for the proceeding; (d) is serving a sentence of imprisonment or is otherwise detained in a detention facility; (e) is a person under the age of 18 years.

A fee under item 6.1, 6.3, 6.4 or 6.5 is not waived, unless it is waived in accordance with section 129(3) of the Supreme Court Act 1986.

Evidence requirements:

If the party wishes to apply for a waiver of fees, based on the above or on the alternate grounds of financial hardship (pursuant to section 129(3) of the Supreme Court Act 1986) the applicant (or their authorised legal representative, if appropriate) will be required to complete an Application for waiver of court fees'. A copy of this form may be obtained from the Probate Office or downloaded from www.supremecourt.vic.gov.au.
