PART B - THE UBER GROUP'S ESTABLISHMENT AND OPERATION OF UBERX

The Uber Group

10. As to paragraph 10, the Defendants:
 - a. say that ~~the~~ First Defendant (Uber Inc) was the parent, or ultimate holding, company of each of the Second to Seventh Defendants from the date of incorporation of each of them;
 - b. by no later than 31 December 2014 Uber Inc was the parent or ultimate holding company of a group of ~~over~~ 110 entities incorporated in different jurisdictions; and
 - c. otherwise ~~deny~~ paragraph 10.
11. As to paragraph 11, the Defendants admit the paragraph and say further that:
 - a. the software application known as the "Uber app" could only be used by registered users; and
 - b. the software application known as the "Uber Partner app" could only be used by registered users in the manner described in paragraph 13 below.
12. As to paragraph 12, the Defendants:
 - a. say that during the material times alleged a person registered to use the Uber app (a Rider) could use the Uber app to request transportation from a third party in the vicinity of the Rider, available and willing to provide that Rider with transportation; and
 - b. otherwise deny ~~paragraph~~ 12.
13. As to paragraph 13, the Defendants:
 - a. say that during the material times alleged a third party who wished to provide transportation to Riders and who successfully registered an account (an Uber Driver Partner) could use the Uber Partner app to receive and accept transportation requests from Riders within their vicinity, when willing to do so; and

b. otherwise deny paragraph 13.

14. As to paragraph 14, the Defendants:

a. say that during the material times alleged, Uber Inc licensed use of the Uber app and the Uber Partner app to Uber International C.V. who, in turn, sub-licensed the use of the Uber app and Uber Partner app to the Third Defendant (Uber BV) which operated and made available the Uber app and the Uber Partner app to Riders and Uber Driver Partners outside of the United States of America; and

b. otherwise deny paragraph 14.

Particulars

Platform Contribution Transaction Agreement between Uber Inc. and Uber International CV dated 31 May 2013.

License Agreement between Uber International C.V. and Uber B.V. dated 11 June 2013.

15. As to ~~paragraph~~ paragraph 15, the Defendants

a. admit paragraph 15(a);

b. admit that during the material times alleged Uber BV provided access to the software required for the support and operation of the Uber app and the Uber Partner app in specific locations in Victoria, New South Wales, Queensland and Western Australia as set out in Schedule 1 (the Relevant Locations) at different points in time as set out in Schedule 1; and

c. otherwise deny paragraph 15(b).

16. As to paragraph 16, the Defendants:

a. say that:

i. Uber Inc was incorporated on or about 16 July 2010 in the State of Delaware in the United States of America and it was (and is) the parent company or ultimate holding company of other companies within the Uber Group;

ii. other companies within the Uber Group were incorporated at various different times and in different countries or locations within countries to carry out different roles, operations or activities;

- b. say that, to the extent that the ride request application part of the Uber business (hereinafter referred to as the “Uber business”) is capable of description or general summary, at various times during the Claim Period as defined in the 2FASOC, the Uber business consisted of:
 - i. the licensing of the Uber app to be made available to Riders in a particular country or location;
 - ii. the licensing of the Uber Partner app to be made available to Uber Driver Partners in a particular country or location;
 - iii. the facilitation of requests for transportation by Riders to Uber Driver Partners who are willing to accept the Riders’ request;
 - iv. the facilitation of payment by the Rider to the Uber Driver Partner;
 - v. the payment of a fee by the Uber Driver Partners -when the transportation of the Rider has taken place; and
- c. otherwise deny paragraph 16.

The Uber Business in Australia

17. The Defendants deny paragraph 17 and further say that:

- a. the first product launched in New South Wales was Uber Black which may be described in summary or general terms as a product that:
 - i. allowed private vehicle drivers in Sydney, New South Wales (some of whom meet the class description “New South Wales Hire Car Group Members”) to receive and accept leads for transportation from Riders through the Uber Partner app; and
 - ii. thereby allowed private vehicle operators in Sydney, New South Wales to increase their potential customer base in that such drivers had the opportunity to receive and accept leads for transportation from Riders through the Uber Partner app, in addition to their existing booking methods, which was not limited to private hire vehicle operators (some of whom also meet the class description “New South Wales Hire Car Group Members”).

18. The Defendants:

- a. deny paragraph 18;
- b. repeat paragraph 17 above;
- c. further say that during the material times alleged:

- i. a number of the companies within the Uber Group had not been established or otherwise incorporated, including -Rasier Pacific, which was not incorporated until 18 December 2015; and
- ii. the “Point to Point Passenger Transport Service” described in paragraph 12 of the 2FASOC (which is also part of the described “Uber Business”) was not in operation in Australia.

19. As to paragraph 19, the Defendants:

- a. admit that Uber Inc provided certain loans to Uber Australia as is recorded in its Financial Report for the year ended 30 June 2013; and
- b. otherwise say that paragraph 19 of the 2FASOC is vague and embarrassing and do not admit paragraph 19.

20. As to paragraph 20, the Defendants:

- a. say that during the material times alleged, Uber Australia provided certain support services such as local marketing promotions to potential Riders and Uber Driver Partners
- b. say that during the material times alleged from at least 1 November 2013, Uber BV paid Uber Australia from time to time for the performance of those services; and
- c. otherwise deny paragraph 20.

20A. As to paragraph 20A, the Defendants:

- a. admit paragraph 20A; and
- b. repeat paragraphs 20(a) and (b) above.

- a. say that during the material times alleged, a Rider in the Relevant Locations was:
 - i. required to complete -a “SIGN UP TO RIDE” application available via the Uber app and on the Uber website (www.uber.com);
 - ii. required to provide payment information (such as credit card or PayPal account details);
 - iii. required to accept the existing terms and conditions as they existed at the relevant time as a condition of registering and being able to use the Uber app;
 - iv. was, following the matters in subparagraphs i–iii above, registered from time to time by Uber BV as a Rider; and

b. otherwise -deny paragraph 21.

22. As to paragraph 22, the Defendants:

a. say that during the material times alleged, the terms and conditions were changed from time to time:

i. but broadly contained terms to the effect pleaded at paragraph 22(a)–(e) and (h);

ii. in respect of paragraph 22(f), the terms and conditions did not refer to Uber ~~Driver~~ Partners (as defined in the 2FASOC) but rather referred to independent third party transportation providers and independent third party logistics providers under agreement with Uber BV or certain of Uber's affiliates;

iii. in respect of paragraph 22(g), the terms and conditions from at least around December 2014 contained clauses to the effect that Uber BV would facilitate payment of the applicable charges on behalf of the third party transportation or logistics provider as such third party transportation or logistics provider's limited payment collection agent; and

b. otherwise -deny paragraph 22.

23. The Defendants deny paragraph 23 and further:

a. repeat paragraphs 16, 17 and 20 above;

b. say that the operations in each of the Relevant Locations occurred at different points in time as set out in Schedule 1;

c. say that from time to time in the Relevant Locations, the operations of Uber Australia included marketing of the Uber app to Riders and the marketing of the Uber Partner app to third party providers of transportation services to Riders;

Conspiracy by unlawful means - Western Australia

- 139A. The Defendants deny paragraph 139A and further repeat paragraphs 112, 120, 124, 130, 131, 134 and 135 above and 140 below.
- 140. The Defendants deny paragraph 140 and:
 - a. repeat paragraph 49 above;

- b. say the particulars, as set out at paragraph 140(2) of the 2FASOC, including the allegation of unlawful competition, are incapable of supporting the allegation of an agreement or combination “with the common intention of injury” and that is an incorrect formulation of the intentional aspect of the tort or, is otherwise insufficient to make out the alleged tort; and
- c. say that further or alternatively, as a matter of fact and law, the alleged intention cannot be founded upon the alleged actions by the Uber Entities other than Rasier Pacific as companies in the same group, since the taking of those actions does not evidence, was not founded upon, and cannot establish any agreement or any agreed combination between them that was arrived at with the intention of injuring the Plaintiff and/or each Group Member; and consequently those actions do not give rise to any tortious conspiracy.

141. The Defendants deny paragraph 141 and repeat paragraph 140 above.

142. The Defendants deny paragraph 142 and repeat paragraph 140 above.

PART F - LOSS AND DAMAGE

142A. The Defendants deny paragraph 142A and further say:

- a. the loss and damage alleged to have been suffered by the Plaintiff and Group Members was not caused by the Uber Entities in circumstances where:
 - i. any loss and damage to the Plaintiff and Group Members was caused by the change to legislation and/or regulations made in each of the Australian States;
 - ii. the licence values and revenues of the Plaintiff and Group Members began declining before the UberX Product was available in the Relevant Locations;
 - iii. the licence values and revenues of the Plaintiff and Group Members would have continued to decline in the Relevant Locations in the absence of the UberX Product becoming available;

Particulars

~~Uber Australia~~The Defendants relies on the following facts, matters and circumstances, in relation to paragraphs subparagraphs (a)(ii) and (a)(iii):

1. Customers First: Service, Safety, Choice (Final Report, December 2012, Professor Allan Fels AO) (proposing taxi industry reforms in Victoria);

2. Competition Policy Review (Final Report, March 2015, Professor Ian Harper) (proposing reforms nationally);
 3. broader economic conditions (Economic Effects of Ridesharing in Australia (2016, Deloitte Access Economics));
 4. legislative and regulatory uncertainty following recommendations for law reform;
 5. law reforms ultimately introduced in each Australian State;
 6. other regulatory reform, including lockout laws; and
 7. further particulars may be provided prior to trial.
- b. in the events that have happened, the introduction of the UberX Product in the Relevant Locations:
- i. has expanded the market for point to point transportation;
 - ii. has increased the potential revenue of the Plaintiff and Group Members;
 - iii. has led to other efficiencies and better performance in the market or markets in which the Plaintiff and Group Members were operating;
- c. in the events that have happened, significant compensation schemes as set out in Schedule 4 have been made available to the Plaintiff and certain of the Group Members; and
- d. to the extent that UberX Driver Partners committed any offences (which is denied), further or alternatively, that the claim made against any of the Uber Entities is established (which is denied), any loss or damage caused to the Plaintiff or Group Members was caused by the regulators or law enforcement bodies in each of the Relevant Locations either expressly or tacitly not enforcing the relevant regulations or bringing any enforcement action against any of the Uber Entities, or alternatively expressly or implicitly encouraging the operation of UberX Driver Partners in the Relevant Locations, and thereby allowing or otherwise tacitly allowing UberX Driver Partners to operate in the Relevant Locations.

143. The Defendants deny paragraph 143 and repeat paragraph 142A above.

PART G – COMMON QUESTIONS OF LAW OR FACT

144. The Defendants deny paragraph 144 and further say:

- a. the Plaintiff's claim does not satisfy the requirements of section 33C(1)(b) or (c) of the Supreme Court Act 1986 (Vic) insofar as these proceedings concern claims of non-Victorian group members and therefore these proceedings are (and always have been) incorrectly constituted as representative proceedings under the Supreme Court Act 1986 (Vic);

- b. by reason of subparagraph (a), at the conclusion of the hearing of the Plaintiff's claim, the Court should determine, in the context of addressing any common questions, that the requirements of section 33C(1)(b) or (c) are not satisfied insofar as these proceedings concern non-Victorian group members;
- c. further or alternatively to subparagraph (b), by reason of subparagraph (a) and in the circumstances, these proceedings should be de-classified pursuant to section 33N of the Supreme Court Act 1986 (Vic);
- d. as to paragraph 144(c), no offence is alleged in respect of any particular UberX Driver Partner and repeats paragraphs 69, 71, 82, 83, 85, 95, 96, 98, 101, 102, 112, 120, 124, 130, 131, 134 and 135 above;
- e. as to paragraph 144(d) and (g), the Plaintiff is not and cannot be representative of any claim made by:
 - i. an accredited provider of taxi-cab network services;
 - ii. the Victorian Hire Car Group Members;
 - iii. the New South Wales Group Members;
 - iv. the Queensland Group Members;
 - v. the Western Australian Group Members; and
- f. as to paragraph 144(h), the Plaintiff's alleged loss and the principles relevant for identifying and measuring that loss is not and cannot be representative of any claim made by:
 - i. an accredited provider of taxi-cab network services;
 - ii. the Victorian Hire Car Group Members;
 - iii. the New South Wales Group Members;
 - iv. the Queensland Group Members; and
 - v. the Western Australian Group Members.

PART H – LIMITATION DEFENCES

145. In further answer to the whole of the 2FASOC, if (which is denied) the Defendants are Uber Australia is liable to the Plaintiff and Group Members as alleged:

- a. the filing of these proceedings did not have the effect of suspending the limitation periods that applied in the case of non-Victorian Group Members;

- b. in the case of the New South Wales Group Members any claim or cause of action by the respective New South Wales Group Member is not maintainable and is otherwise time barred by operation of s 14 of the Limitation Act 1969 (NSW); and
- c. in the case of Queensland Group Members any claim or cause of action by the respective Queensland Group Member is not maintainable and is otherwise time barred by operation of s 10 of the Limitation of Actions Act 1974 (Qld).
