9.09 Change of party on death, bankruptcy

- (2) On making an order under paragraph (1), the Court may, whether or not a grant of representation within the meaning of

Rule 9.08(11) has been made, direct that if the proceeding is dismissed by virtue of the order, costs of the proceeding be awarded as follows—

- (3) A claim for exemplary damages shall be specifically pleaded together with the facts on which the party pleading relies.

A party may plead any fact or matter which has arisen at any time, whether before or since the commencement of the proceeding.

2. An amount of money, or money and vouchers, that is sufficient to meet your reasonable expenses of complying with the subpoena must be given to you within a reasonable time before the date for compliance with the subpoena (see below: 'Your obligations').

Note: Details of some of the grounds on which a subpoena can be set aside and the procedures for setting aside a subpoena are set out at the end of this notice.

Your obligations

1. Unless the subpoena is set aside, you must comply with the attached subpoena if:
 - (a) when the subpoena was served on you, or at some reasonable time before the date specified in the subpoena for compliance with it, you were offered or given either:
 - (i) enough money to meet your reasonable expenses in complying with it, including any travel and accommodation expenses; or
 - (ii) a combination of money and vouchers (for example, travel tickets) to meet those expenses; and
 - (b) you were given with the subpoena a copy of an order by a judge giving leave to serve the subpoena in New Zealand; and
 - (c) the subpoena was served on you before or on the date specified in the order as the last day on which the subpoena may be served; and

- (d) service of the subpoena complied with any other conditions specified in the order; and
 - (e) you are 18 years of age or older.
2. If the subpoena only requires you to produce documents or things, it must specify the date on which the documents or things are required for production in the court or tribunal that issued the subpoena.

You may comply with the subpoena by producing the documents or things at a registry of the High Court of New Zealand at least 10 days before the date specified in the subpoena.

When you produce the documents or things at the registry you will be required to produce the subpoena and to pay the cost of sending the documents or things to the court or tribunal that issued the subpoena. You will be able to pay that cost out of the money given to you to meet your reasonable expenses of complying with the subpoena.

Failure to comply with the subpoena

If you do not comply with this subpoena you may be arrested and taken before the High Court of New Zealand. Unless the High Court is satisfied that failure to comply should be excused, a fine not exceeding NZ$10 000 may be imposed.

Grounds for setting aside a subpoena

1. The Court must set aside the subpoena if the subpoena requires you to attend at a place in Australia and:
- (a) you do not have necessary travel documents and cannot reasonably get them within the time allowed for compliance with the subpoena; or
 - (b) if you complied with the subpoena—you would be liable to be detained for the purpose of serving a sentence; or
 - (c) you are being prosecuted or you are liable to prosecution for an offence in Australia; or
 - (d) you are liable to imposition of a penalty in civil proceedings in Australia (other than proceedings under the Australian Consumer Law); or
 - (e) you are subject to a restriction on your movements imposed by law or an order of a Court that is inconsistent with you complying with the subpoena (for example, bail conditions, release conditions or terms of a community based sentence).

Supreme Court (General Civil Procedure) Rules 2015
S.R. No. 103/2015

Form 7AB—Subpoena to produce documents (New Zealand)

2. The grounds on which the Court may set aside the subpoena include:
 - (a) the evidence you would give in the proceedings can be obtained satisfactorily by other means without significantly greater expense;
 - (b) compliance with the subpoena would cause you hardship or serious inconvenience;
 - (c) if the subpoena requires you to produce a document or thing and:
 - (i) that document or thing should not be taken out of New Zealand; and
 - (ii) satisfactory evidence of the contents of the document or satisfactory evidence of the thing can be given by other means.

Note: The above list does not include all the matters the Court will consider in an application to set aside a subpoena, but if any of the matters in the list apply to you they should be included in your application.

Procedure for applying to set aside a subpoena

1. Application must be made to the Supreme Court of Victoria.
2. You may fax your application to that Court on fax number [fax number of the Court].
3. Your application must contain an address for service in New Zealand or Australia. Any documents to be served on you will be delivered, faxed or posted to you at that address.
4. The Prothonotary will arrange for service of your application and of any affidavit you lodge with the Court with your application.
5. The Court may determine your application without a hearing unless you, or the person who requested that the subpoena be issued, asks for a hearing.
6. If there is a hearing the Court can direct that it be held by video link (that is, a conference television link) or telephone. In that case you or your lawyer can take part in the hearing by video link or by telephone from a place in New Zealand.
7. If, in your application or within a reasonable time after lodging your application, you request that the hearing be held by video link or telephone, the Court must hold a hearing by video link or telephone. However, in such a case, the Court will determine which of video link or telephone will be used.
