

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION

This Notice concerns interrogatories served in Personal Injuries List proceedings under Order 30 of the Supreme Court (General Civil Procedure) Rules 2005.

The Judge in Charge of the Personal Injuries List ('the List'), the Honourable Justice Williams, advises the profession as follows:

- The number of interrogatories served in proceedings in the List should be limited to thirty (including sub-parts).
- In motor vehicle accident and industrial accident cases, interrogatories are only permitted in relation to questions of liability.

Clare Bradin
Common Law Division Legal & Policy Officer
19 December 2013